This agreement will support the National Strategic Framework for Legal Assistance, by contributing to integrated, efficient, effective and appropriate legal assistance services which are focussed on improving outcomes and keeping the justice system within reach for vulnerable people facing disadvantage.

National Legal Assistance Partnership

OVERVIEW

1. The National Legal Assistance Partnership (NLAP) is created subject to the provisions of the Intergovernmental Agreement on Federal Financial Relations (IGA FFR) and should be read in conjunction with that Agreement and its Schedules, which provide information in relation to performance reporting and payment arrangements under the IGA FFR. For the purposes of the IGA FFR, the NLAP is categorised as a National Partnership.

Purpose

2. In entering the NLAP, the Commonwealth and the States and Territories (the States) recognise that they have a mutual interest and responsibility in the provision of legal assistance services which help vulnerable people facing disadvantage, who are unable to afford private legal services, to engage effectively with the justice system in order to address their legal problems. The Commonwealth and the States recognise the need to work together to further the National Strategic Framework for Legal Assistance and its objective and principles.
3. The NLAP will support the National Strategic Framework for Legal Assistance, by contributing to integrated, efficient, effective and appropriate legal assistance services which are focussed on improving outcomes and keeping the justice system within reach for vulnerable people facing disadvantage, within available resources.

Reporting Arrangements

4. The States will report against the agreed outputs and performance indicators during the operation of the NLAP, as set out in Part 4 – Performance Monitoring and Reporting.

Financial Arrangements

5. The Commonwealth will provide an estimated total financial contribution to the States of $2.0 billion over five years (GST exclusive) in respect of this multilateral agreement of the NLAP, as set out in Part 5 – Financial Arrangements. The Commonwealth may also include additional funding in respect of the Bilateral Schedules of the NLAP; this is at the discretion of the Commonwealth and not required by this agreement.

PRELIMINARIES

6. The National Strategic Framework for Legal Assistance (the National Strategic Framework) provides the overarching objective and principles for all government funded legal assistance services, delivered by Legal Aid Commissions, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Legal Services, Community Legal Centres and Family Violence Prevention Legal Services.
7. The National Strategic Framework was agreed by Attorneys-General from the Commonwealth and the States, through the Council of Attorneys-General.

8. The NLAP provides quarantined Commonwealth funding for legal assistance and sets out arrangements for the delivery of Commonwealth funded legal assistance services. The NLAP also provides separate Commonwealth funding to support the States in administering the NLAP. The NLAP outlines a framework to guide the legal assistance sector, including providers which may not be funded under the NLAP.
9. The NLAP supports the objective of the National Strategic Framework and the Parties will ensure that the delivery of legal assistance services are consistent with its principles.
10. The NLAP consists of this multilateral agreement and Bilateral Schedules between the Commonwealth and each State. Within this structure, there are arrangements for:
 - (a) mainstream and specialist legal assistance; and
 - (b) Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander specific legal assistance.

PART 1 – FORMALITIES

Parties to this Agreement

11. The NLAP is between the Commonwealth of Australia (the Commonwealth) and the States and Territories (the States).

Use of Commonwealth funding

55. Commonwealth funding provided under the NLAP must be prioritised for the delivery of frontline legal assistance services, which includes operational costs that support this delivery, or to directly enable the legal assistance sector, funded under the NLAP, to undertake activities required by the NLAP.
56. Commonwealth funding provided under the NLAP must not be used by the States to administer the NLAP, unless a separate Commonwealth funding stream is specifically provided for this purpose under the NLAP or it is agreed in writing by the Commonwealth.
57. Commonwealth funding provided under the NLAP will be quarantined and cannot be used to cross subsidise other funding streams or legal assistance providers. This does not inhibit legal assistance providers from establishing subcontracting or similar arrangements with other legal assistance providers.
58. Given the Parties preference for maximising funding certainty for legal assistance providers, the States will administer, as appropriate, Commonwealth funding under the NLAP:
 - (a) for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Legal Services through a five year funding agreement; and
 - (b) for all other legal assistance providers through either a:
 - i. preferred single funding agreement that covers the full five years of the NLAP; or
 - ii. combination of no more than two funding agreements that cover the five year duration of the NLAP.

Limited exceptions to this requirement may be agreed between the Parties, in writing, on a case-by-case basis.

59. The Commonwealth and the States will make best endeavours to ensure that, within the duration of funding agreements outlined in Clause 58, legal assistance providers receive ideally twelve months advance notice of any potential future Commonwealth and State funding distributions, where applicable and appropriate.
60. The delivery of legal assistance services with Commonwealth funding provided under the NLAP should be informed by and in accordance with:
 - (a) the States' respective Legal Assistance Strategy and Legal Assistance Action Plan (Schedule C), once these are finalised;
 - (b) the outcomes of collaborative service planning (Schedule B); and
 - (c) the Commonwealth priorities under the NLAP (Schedule A).

Mainstream and specialist legal assistance services

Baseline funding

61. Under the NLAP, the States will allocate and administer quarantined Commonwealth baseline funding to Legal Aid Commissions and Community Legal Centres.
62. The Commonwealth's financial contributions to baseline funding for Legal Aid Commissions and Community Legal Centres will be distributed between the States using evidence based funding distribution models.

63. Commonwealth baseline funding for Legal Aid Commissions will be used for Commonwealth law matters only, except:
 - (a) where State law matters relating to the safety or welfare of a child are connected with family law proceedings;
 - (b) where State law matters relating to person's safety are connected with family law proceedings; or
 - (c) in discrete assistance and/or community legal education, regardless of whether the matter relates to Commonwealth or State laws.
64. The Commonwealth's financial contributions to baseline funding for Legal Aid Commissions includes $8.6 million over five years that must be used for the delivery of legal assistance services related to family law and/or family violence related matters.
65. Commonwealth baseline funding for Community Legal Centres consists of:
 - (a) Baseline funding; and
 - (b) Baseline funding: Family Law and/or Family Violence.
66. Baseline funding: Family Law and/or Family Violence for Community Legal Centres will be used for family law and/or family violence related matters.

Domestic violence units and/or health justice partnerships

67. Under the NLAP, the States will allocate Commonwealth funding to all currently funded legal assistance providers, for the delivery of existing domestic violence units and/or health justice partnerships.
68. Domestic violence units and/or health justice partnerships provide legal assistance and other forms of support, including financial support services such as financial counselling, to women experiencing or at risk of domestic violence.
69. The States will be able to reallocate Commonwealth funding for domestic violence units and/or health justice partnerships to another legal assistance provider, if there:
 - (a) are issues relating to performance of the currently funded legal assistance provider;
 - (b) is a demonstrated shift in legal need within the State; or
 - (c) is a more appropriate, qualified legal assistance provider for the delivery of domestic violence units and/or health justice partnerships.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander specific legal assistance services

Baseline funding

70. Under the NLAP, the States will allocate and administer quarantined Commonwealth baseline funding to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Legal Services for the delivery of culturally appropriate services in a manner consistent with self-determination, as defined under the NLAP, and the Partnership Agreement on Closing the Gap and the Closing the Gap framework.
71. The Commonwealth's financial contributions to baseline funding for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Legal Services will be distributed between the States using evidence based funding distribution models.

72. The States will allocate Commonwealth baseline funding to all existing and currently funded Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Legal Services for the duration of the NLAP.
73. The States may reallocate Commonwealth baseline funding for the funded Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Legal Services to another Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Legal Service where the relevant State can demonstrate there:
 - (a) are serious and objective issues relating to performance of the currently funded Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Legal Service that are detrimental to their present and/or potential clients which have not been rectified following the States working with the relevant Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Legal Service to address these issues over a reasonable period of time; and/or
 - (b) is a more appropriate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Legal Service operating within the relevant State which can clearly demonstrate it has the capability and capacity to provide more effective, culturally appropriate legal assistance services to Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people or better address legal need within the relevant State, which results in better outcomes for current and/or potential clients.
74. If the State intends to make a reallocation of funding under Clause 73, the State must:
 - (a) prior to making a decision to reallocate funding, consult with the Commonwealth, National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Legal Services and the relevant Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Legal Service; and
 - (b) inform the Commonwealth, National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Legal Services and the relevant Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Legal Service in writing, of:
 - i. the proposed reallocation of funding to another Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Legal Service; and
 - ii. how the conditions established under Clause 73 have been met.
75. The Commonwealth's financial contributions to baseline funding for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Legal Services includes $8.6 million over five years that must be used for the delivery of legal assistance services related to family law and/or family violence related matters.

Payment

76. Subject to the States meeting the requirements set out in the NLAP, the Commonwealth contributions will be paid in accordance with the schedule outlined in Table 5, unless otherwise stated in the Bilateral Schedules.

Financial risk management

77. Having regard to the agreed estimated costs of services and outputs under the NLAP, States will not be required to pay a refund to the Commonwealth if the actual cost is less than the agreed estimated cost, although Commonwealth funding should be used for, and in line with, its original purpose. Similarly, the States bear all risk should the costs exceed the agreed estimated costs. The Parties acknowledge that this arrangement provides the maximum incentive for the States to deliver services and outputs cost effectively and efficiently.

PART 6 – GOVERNANCE ARRANGEMENTS

78. The NLAP will be supported by the Legal Assistance Services Inter Governmental Committee consisting of officials from the Parties. This Committee is supported by a National Legal Assistance Advisory Group, consisting of representatives from the national legal assistance sector, research bodies and other national bodies related to legal assistance.
79. Officials from the Commonwealth will, within each jurisdiction and on a tripartite basis, meet annually with officials from the State and delegates representing each type of legal assistance provider individually to discuss issues relating to the NLAP.

Enforceability of the Agreement

80. The Parties do not intend any of the provisions of the NLAP to be legally enforceable. However, this does not lessen the Parties' commitment to the NLAP.

Review of the Agreement

81. In accordance with Clause E23 of the IGA FFR, the NLAP is time limited. To assess the degree to which the agreed objectives and outcomes and/or outputs have been achieved, and inform decisions regarding the appropriate treatment following its expiry, an Independent Review of the NLAP will be scheduled to be completed approximately 18 months prior to its expiry.
82. The NLAP is intended to provide funding for the delivery of legal assistance services which help vulnerable people facing disadvantage, who are unable to afford private legal services, to engage effectively with the justice system in order to address their legal problems. The Independent Review of the NLAP should, at a minimum, consider:
- (a) progress towards achieving the overall objectives and outcomes of the NLAP;
 - (b) the appropriateness of the NLAP in achieving its objective and outcomes and delivering its outputs; and
 - (c) whether mainstream, specialist and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander specific legal assistance services funded under the NLAP have been delivered in an effective, efficient and appropriate manner.
83. The Independent Review will be conducted by an appropriately skilled and qualified independent third party, including that the third party will be able to conduct a review in a culturally appropriate manner, or be able to work with, sub-contract or partner with another entity that has this capability.
84. The terms of reference for the Independent Review will be jointly developed by the Parties, in consultation with the National Legal Assistance Advisory Group.
85. The Commonwealth will lead the management of the Independent Review, with key decisions to be made jointly by the Parties and in consultation with the National Legal Assistance Advisory Group.
86. The final report for the Independent Review must be made publically available by the Commonwealth within three months on completion of the Independent Review, unless it is not reasonable, appropriate or practical to do so at the time.
87. The costs of the Independent Review will be shared by the Parties, with 50% of the cost to be covered by the Commonwealth and 50% to be collectively covered by the States. The States' share of the costs for the Independent Review will be based on their respective proportion of Commonwealth funding for legal assistance services received under the NLAP.
88. With consideration of the outcomes of the Independent Review, the Parties will consider future arrangements for ongoing, quarantined Commonwealth funding for mainstream, specialist and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander specific legal assistance services beyond the term of the NLAP. The Parties will consider future arrangements when framing their budgets, noting that this would be subject to the outcomes of relevant government processes at both the Commonwealth and State level.

Variation of the Agreement

89. The NLAP may be amended at any time by agreement in writing by all the Parties.
90. An individual Party to the NLAP may terminate their participation in the NLAP at any time by notifying, in writing, all the other Parties and all relevant legal assistance providers funded under the NLAP.

Delegations

91. The Commonwealth Attorney-General or the relevant Commonwealth Minister is authorised to agree and amend Schedules to the NLAP on behalf of the Commonwealth and to certify that relevant conditions specified under the NLAP have been achieved, so that payments may be made.
92. Respective State Attorneys-General or the relevant State Ministers with portfolio responsibility for legal assistance are authorised to agree and amend Schedules to the NLAP.
93. The Commonwealth Attorney-General may delegate the issuing of guidance, assessment of reporting and performance monitoring requirements, determining exceptions to the duration of funding agreements for legal assistance providers and the authorisation of related payments to senior Commonwealth officials, having regard to the financial and policy risks associated with those payments.
94. Respective State Attorneys-General or the relevant State Ministers with portfolio responsibility for legal assistance may delegate functions relevant to performance monitoring and reporting, requesting exceptions to the duration of funding agreements for legal assistance providers and the Independent Review to senior State officials.

Dispute resolution

95. Any Party may give notice to other Parties of a dispute under the NLAP.
96. Officials of relevant Parties will attempt to resolve any dispute in the first instance.
97. If a dispute cannot be resolved by officials, it may be escalated to Attorneys-General, and if necessary, the Council of Attorneys-General.

Commonwealth Priorities

NATIONAL LEGAL ASSISTANCE PARTNERSHIP

PRELIMINARIES

- A1 This Schedule provides guidance on the prioritisation of mainstream, specialist and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander specific legal assistance services.

NATIONAL PRIORITY CLIENT GROUPS

- A2 The States will ensure that legal assistance services are focussed on people experiencing financial disadvantage.
- A3 The States will ensure that legal assistance services are planned and focussed to people who fall within one or more of the following national priority client groups (in alphabetical order):
- (a) Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people;
 - (b) children and young people (up to 24 years);
 - (c) older people (aged over 65 years or Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people aged over 50 years);
 - (d) people experiencing, or at risk of, family violence;
 - (e) people experiencing, or at risk of, homelessness;
 - (f) people in custody and/or prisoners;
 - (g) people residing in rural or remote areas;
 - (h) people who are culturally and linguistically diverse;
 - (i) people with a disability or mental illness;
 - (j) people with low education levels; and
 - (k) single parents.
- A4 The list of national priority client groups recognise that certain cohorts of vulnerable people facing disadvantage are more likely to experience legal problems, less likely to seek assistance and/or less able to access services for a range of reasons.
- A5 The legal assistance sector is not excluded from assisting clients that fall outside these groups.

STATE-SPECIFIC PRIORITY CLIENT GROUPS

- A6 In addition to the national priority client groups, States may identify other priority client groups that may be specific to their respective jurisdiction. The State will ensure the legal assistance sector plan and target their services to these additional client groups.
- A7 If a State identifies additional priority client groups, these should be listed in its Legal Assistance Strategy (Schedule C).

COMMONWEALTH SERVICE PRIORITIES

General principles

- A8 Commonwealth funding must be prioritised:
- (a) for the delivery of frontline services and focused on meeting the legal needs of individuals, with a specific focus on priority clients; and
 - (b) to directly enable legal assistance providers to undertake activities required by the NLAP.
- A9 Mainstream, specialist and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander specific legal assistance services must be delivered in a manner consistent with the National Strategic Framework.
- A10 Family or civil law disputes should be resolved through alternative dispute resolution processes rather than through litigation, where appropriate.
- A11 The legal assistance sector should consider whether other services (legal as well as non-legal) may be relevant to a client's needs and make referrals to these services where appropriate. Suitable collaborative arrangements should be established for this purpose.

National and jurisdictional emergencies

- A12 The legal assistance sector should endeavour to ensure the continued delivery of legal assistance services during national or jurisdictional emergencies, taking into consideration:
- (a) the safety of individuals who will be responsible for the delivery of legal assistance services;
 - (b) the safety of those in receipt of legal assistance services; and
 - (c) the appropriateness of continuing to deliver legal assistance services during a national or jurisdictional emergency.

Family law priorities

- A13 Legal assistance services related to family law should focus on:
- (a) matters where the safety or welfare of children are at risk;
 - (b) matters involving allegations of family violence;
 - (c) matters involving complex issues about the living arrangements, relationships and financial support of children; and
 - (d) assisting people with property settlement matters if they are experiencing financial disadvantage or are at risk of homelessness.

A14 For Legal Aid Commissions, the representation of children in family law proceedings and family dispute resolution processes should also be a focus.

Commonwealth civil law priorities

A15 Legal assistance services related to Commonwealth civil law should focus on:

- (a) bankruptcy matters;
- (b) consumer law matters;
- (c) employment matters;
- (d) extradition matters;
- (e) human rights and anti-discrimination matters;
- (f) insurance law matters;
- (g) migration matters; and
- (h) social security law matters (including matters relating to military entitlements and military compensation claims).

A16 The list of Commonwealth civil law areas is for guidance only. The legal assistance sector should consider how to best meet civil law need collectively (arising from Commonwealth or State laws).

Commonwealth criminal law priorities

A17 Legal assistance services related to Commonwealth criminal law should focus on:

- (a) matters where the defendant is a child;
- (b) matters where the defendant is being charged with a criminal offence for which a sentence of imprisonment is likely to apply should the defendant be found guilty; and
- (c) assisting persons being detained in custody.

Lobbying activities

A18 The NLAP does not prohibit legal assistance providers from engaging in lobbying activities. Legal assistance providers, funded under the NLAP, are not to use Commonwealth resources or funding provided under the NLAP to undertake lobbying activities, except as specified in Clause A23.

A19 The NLAP does not restrict what legal assistance providers can do with their State or pro bono funding and resources. The manner in which legal assistance providers use non-Commonwealth funding and resources is a matter for those organisations.

A20 Legal assistance peak bodies, rather than legal assistance providers, should undertake public campaigns with respect to any administrative, legislative or policy decisions, including undertaking strategic policy, law reform and related activities.

- A21 Under the NLAP, the following activities do not constitute lobbying and can be conducted by legal assistance providers with Commonwealth funding provided under the NLAP:
- (a) community legal education activities;
 - (b) communications with a committee of the Parliament;
 - (c) communications with a Minister or Parliamentary Secretary, unless that communication is intended to unduly influence the outcome of a grant or procurement process or unduly influence a Commonwealth administrative, legislative or policy decision;
 - (d) making a submission or providing factual information and/or advice to an inquiry, Royal Commission, government, parliamentary or other relevant body, Minister, Parliamentary Secretary, Committee of a Parliament, or Member of a Parliament on systemic factors affecting justice issues;
 - (e) identifying and raising awareness of systemic or structural issues affecting the legal and justice system, or that impact the outcome for one or more clients, or affect the delivery of legal assistance services with a legal assistance peak body, inquiry, Royal Commission, government, parliamentary or other relevant body, Minister, Parliamentary Secretary, Committee of a Parliament, or Member of a Parliament;
 - (f) communications in response to a call for submissions;
 - (g) communications in response to a request for tender or similar processes; or
 - (h) responses to requests by government representatives for information or policy development.
- A22 Legal assistance providers funded under the NLAP must prioritise the use of Commonwealth funding for the delivery of frontline legal assistance services and/or undertaking activities required under the NLAP.
- A23 Notwithstanding Clause A18, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Legal Services are permitted to undertake lobbying activities within the definition in Clause 98(n) ii, but must prioritise the delivery of frontline legal assistance services.
